Notice to Job Applicants of the City of Bedford's Alcohol and Substance Abuse Screening Policy and Agreement

I acknowledge that I have been informed that the City of Bedford (the City) requires each job applicant, as a condition of employment, to submit to a urine or other testing procedures for controlled substances and alcohol. These procedures will be conducted by the City's medical facility and paid for by the City.

I agree to submit to such tests and hereby authorize release and disclosure of the results to the City. Prior to taking such tests or examinations, I will declare any prescribed control substances that I am taking as well as any over-the-counter medications.

I further acknowledge that any test results which show the presence of a controlled substance in the absence of a medically acceptable prescription will result in denial of employment or dismissal, once employed. Any test results which show the presence of alcohol will result in denial of employment or discipline up to and including possible dismissal, once employed. Any initial positive test result on urine will automatically be confirmed by running a gas chromatography/mass spectrometry (GC/MS) test on the same sample. No positive test result will be released unless or until it is confirmed by the GC/MS test. After a confirmed positive test result, an employee or applicant may, at their own expense, have a third test conducted on the same sample at a laboratory selected by the City. Any employment actions taken as a result of a confirmed positive test result can be addressed under the City's grievance procedure contained in the Personnel Policies.

I agree to sign any documents that may be necessary to consent to the testing and to permit release of and disclosure to the City of any medical examination or medical tests for controlled substances or alcohol. The failure to sign such documents will result in denial of employment or dismissal, once employed.

While I am employed with the City, I agree as a condition to my continued employment to submit to any additional examinations or tests required by said policies, rules and regulations. This includes but is not limited to unannounced random controlled substances and alcohol tests or examinations. I hereby authorize release and disclosure of the results of such tests or examinations to the City.

I hereby release and hold harmless the laboratory and any person(s) involved with the taking of such specimens from any liability arising from the taking of fluids and for any ill effects that may result from the substance testing procedures.

I have read the foregoing agreement. I understand that I may refuse to sign this document; however, my refusal will result in rejection of my application for employment. I have thoroughly read the forgoing and hereby consent to its terms. I understand that my compliance with such terms is a condition of continued employment with the City of Bedford and that employment is At-will.

Statement Concerning Your Employment in a Job Not Covered by Social Security

Name of Applicant: _____

If hired, your earnings from this job are not covered under Social Security. When you retire, or if you become disabled, you may receive a pension based on earnings from this job. If you do, and you are also entitled to a benefit from Social Security based on either your own work or the work of your husband or wife, or former husband or wife, your pension may affect the amount of the Social Security benefit you receive. Your Medicare benefits, however, will not be affected. Under the Social Security law, there are two ways your Social Security benefit amount may be affected.

Windfall Elimination Provision

Under the Windfall Elimination Provision, your Social Security retirement or disability benefit is figured using a modified formula when you are also entitled to a pension from a job where you did not pay Social Security tax. As a result, you will receive a lower Social Security benefit than if you were not entitled to a pension from this job. For example, if you are age 62 in 2005, the maximum monthly reduction in your Social Security benefit as a result of this provision is $313.50. This amount is updated annually. This provision reduces, but does not totally eliminate, your Social Security benefit. For additional information, please refer to Social Security Publication, "Windfall Elimination Provision."

Government Pension Offset Provision

Under the government Pension Offset Provision, any Social Security spouse or widow(er) benefit to which you become entitled will be offset if you also receive Federal, State or local government pension based on work where you did not pay Social Security tax. The offset reduces the amount of your Social Security spouse or widow(er) benefit by two-thirds of the amount of your pension. For example, if you get a monthly pension of $600 based on earnings that are not covered under Social Security, two-thirds of that amount, $400, is used to offset your Social Security spouse or widow(er) benefit. If you are eligible for a $500 widow(er) benefit, you will receive $100 per month from Social Security ($$500 - $400 = $100$). Even if your pension is high enough to totally offset your spouse or widow(er) Social Security benefit, you are still eligible for Medicare at age 65. For additional information, please refer to Social Security Publication, "Government Pension Offset."

For More Information

Social Security publications and additional information, including information about exceptions to each provision, are available at www.socialsecurity.gov. I certify that I have read this information on Form SSA-1945 that contains information about the possible effects of the Windfall Elimination Provision and the Government Pension Offset Provision on my potential future Social Security benefits, if hired at the City of Bedford.

Veteran Self-Identification Form

Protected Veterans

Definition:

This employer is a Government contractor subject to the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, as amended by the Jobs for Veterans Act of 2002, 38 U.S.C. 4212 (VEVRAA), which requires Government contractors to take affirmative action to employ and advance in employment: (1) disabled veterans; (2) recently separated veterans; (3) active duty wartime or campaign badge veterans; and (4) Armed Forces service medal veterans. These classifications are defined as follows:

A "disabled veteran" is one of the following:

- A veteran of the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service who is entitled to compensation (or who but for the receipt of military retired pay would be entitled to compensation) under laws administered by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs; or
- A person who was discharged or released from active duty because of a service-connected disability.

A "recently separated veteran" means any veteran during the three-year period beginning on the date of such veteran's discharge or release from active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval, or air service.

An "active duty wartime or campaign badge veteran" means a veteran who served on active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service during a war, or in a campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge has been authorized under the laws administered by the Department of Defense.

An "Armed forces service medal veteran" means a veteran who, while serving on active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service, participated in a United States military operation for which an Armed Forces services medal was awarded pursuant to Executive Order 12985.

Protected veterans may have additional rights under USERRA – the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act. In particular, if you were absent from employment in order to perform service in the uniformed service, you may be entitled to be reemployed by your employer in the position you would have obtained with reasonable certainty if not for the absence due to service. For more information, call the U.S. Department of Labor's Veterans Employment and Training Service (VETS), toll-free, at 1-866-4-USA-DOL.

Applicant Frequently Asked Questions

Q. When will I be contacted about an interview?

A. Human Resources serves as a collection point for all employment applications. Once we receive an application we forward it to the department that has the vacancy. That department, in turn, will contact applicants that they feel are most qualified for an interview. Our goal is to fill all vacancies as quickly as possible.

Q. Why can't I just submit a resume instead of filling out an application?

A. The application is the City's official employment document. We require that a completed application be submitted for each position for which the applicant wishes to apply.

Q. Why do I have to fill out an application for each position that I want to apply for?

A. The City of Bedford is an affirmative action employer. We require (for record keeping purposes) a separate application for each position for which an applicant wishes to apply. Since it is likely that the vacancies are in different departments, an application filled out for multiple vacancies may not be forwarded out of the department to which it was originally sent.

Q. What does it mean when a job posting has a "closing date"?

A. This means that applications will be accepted through 5 p.m. on the closing date. Applications submitted and/or received after the closing date will not be forwarded to the interviewing department. NOTE: If an application is postmarked before the closing date it will be considered as received within the appropriate time frame.

Q. What does it mean if there is no closing date listed on the application?

A. This means that the department will accept applications until the position is filled.

Q. If typing skills are a job requirement, will I be given a typing test?

A. Yes, you will be given a typing test only if you are called in for an interview. If a typing test is administered, you must pass the test in order to be interviewed.

Q. What are the guidelines for violations on a Texas Drivers License with regard to an applicant?

- A.
1. No more than two moving violations and /or accidents recorded against the applicant's drivers license by any licensing agency within the preceding 24 month period; and,
 2. No more than four moving violations and/or accidents recorded against the applicant's drivers license by any licensing agency within the preceding 36 month period; and,
 3. No DWI or DUID conviction during the preceding 36 month period.

Q. Can I follow up with a phone call to the interviewing supervisor to make sure my application was received?

A. If a contact name and phone number appears on the job posting you may feel free to contact that person regarding the status of your application. If no contact information appears on the job posting, that means that the interviewing supervisor does not wish applicants to contact him/her regarding the status of an application. Human Resources staff will honor that request and will not give out that information to job applicants. Human Resources will forward all job applications on the day that they are received.

Q. How may I submit an application for employment?

A. Applications may be submitted to Human Resources online, by mail, in person or over the fax machine. Specific information is located at the bottom of the employment application.

Q. Will I be notified when the position that I applied for is filled?

A. Unfortunately, due to the high volume of applications that we receive for each opening, we are unable to provide each applicant with a written notification that a position has been filled. However, you may check whether or not a position has been filled by accessing our city website at www.bedfordtx.gov.

Personal History Statement Instructions

Employees are exposed to confidential and law enforcement sensitive information. A thorough background investigation is required to properly evaluate the suitability of applicants for employment with the agency. Although it is an achievement to reach the background phase of the hiring process, this is still a competitive process and does not, in any way, guaranty selection.

These instructions are provided as a guide to assist you in properly completing your Personal History Statement. It is essential that the information is accurate in all respects so please read all instructions carefully before proceeding. The Personal History Statement will be used as a basis for a background investigation that will determine your eligibility for becoming an employee.

1. Your application must be printed legibly in BLACK INK by the applicant or typed. Answer all questions truthfully and accurately.
2. If a question is not applicable to you, enter N/A in the space provided.

4. You are responsible for obtaining correct and full addresses. If you are not sure of an address, personally verify before making that entry on this history statement. Errors will not be viewed favorably. ALL ADDRESSES MUST BE COMPLETE WITH ZIP CODES.
5. If you need additional space for your answers, attach an additional sheet or sheets as needed. Be sure to indicate what question number and page this refers to.
6. An accurate and complete form will help expedite your investigation. Omissions or falsifications will result in disqualification.
7. You are responsible for furnishing any changes and/or updating your application as needed, such as address changes or telephone changes in writing.
8. Any candidate submitting an incomplete application WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED FOR EMPLOYMENT. Your application will be evaluated on completeness and neatness.

10. If you have any questions, please contact your assigned background investigator
11. When submitting the completed documents, please place them in a sealed envelope marked Personal and Confidential to your assigned background investigator.

APPLICANT QUALIFICATION SECTION

Before you begin to fill out this personal history statement, please ensure that you meet the following requirements. You must meet all five of these requirements to qualify for licensure as a peace officer or jailer in Texas.

Initial:

_____ I am a citizen of the United States of America.

_____ I have earned a high school diploma or a GED.

_____ I have never been convicted, plead guilty (nolo contendere), nor have I been on court-ordered community service/probation or deferred adjudication for a Class A misdemeanor or a felony.

_____ During the last ten (10) years, I have not been convicted, plead guilty (nolo contendere), been on community service/probation or deferred adjudication for a Class B misdemeanor in this state, other state, or while serving in the military.

_____ I have never had a military court martial that resulted in a dishonorable or bad conduct discharge.

DISQUALIFICATION

There are very few automatic basis for rejection. Even issues of prior misconduct, employee terminations, and arrests are usually not, in and of themselves, automatically disqualifying. However, deliberate misstatements or omissions can and often will result in your application being rejected, regardless of the nature or reason for the misstatements/omissions. In fact, the number one reason individuals “fail” background investigations is because they deliberately withhold or misrepresent job-relevant information from their prospective employer.

This personal history statement is a governmental document. Be truthful, as there are criminal consequences for lying on a governmental document.

Notice to Job Applicants of the City of Bedford's

Alcohol and Substance Abuse Screening Policy and Agreement

I acknowledge that I have been informed that the City of Bedford (the City) requires each job applicant, as a condition of employment, to submit to a urine or other testing procedures for controlled substances and alcohol. These procedures will be conducted by the City's medical facility and paid for by the City.

I agree to submit to such tests and hereby authorize release and disclosure of the results to the City. Prior to taking such tests or examinations, I will declare any prescribed control substances that I am taking as well as any over-the-counter medications.

I further acknowledge that any test results which show the presence of a controlled substance in the absence of a medically acceptable prescription will result in denial of employment or dismissal, once employed. Any test results which show the presence of alcohol will result in denial of employment or discipline up to and including possible dismissal, once employed. Any initial positive test result on urine will automatically be confirmed by running a gas chromatography/mass spectrometry (GC/MS) test on the same sample. No positive test result will be released unless or until it is confirmed by the GC/MS test. After a confirmed positive test result, an employee or applicant may, at their own expense, have a third test conducted on the same sample at a laboratory selected by the City. Any employment actions taken as a result of a confirmed positive test result can be addressed under the City's grievance procedure contained in the Personnel Policies.

I agree to sign any documents that may be necessary to consent to the testing and to permit release of and disclosure to the City of any medical examination or medical tests for controlled substances or alcohol. The failure to sign such documents will result in denial of employment or dismissal, once employed.

While I am employed with the City, I agree as a condition to my continued employment to submit to any additional examinations or tests required by said policies, rules and regulations. This includes but is not limited to unannounced random controlled substances and alcohol tests or examinations. I hereby authorize release and disclosure of the results of such tests or examinations to the City.

I hereby release and hold harmless the laboratory and any person(s) involved with the taking of such specimens from any liability arising from the taking of fluids and for any ill effects that may result from the substance testing procedures.

I have read the foregoing agreement. I understand that I may refuse to sign this document; however, my refusal will result in rejection of my application for employment. I have thoroughly read the forgoing and hereby consent to its terms. I understand that my compliance with such terms is a condition of continued employment with the City of Bedford and that employment is At-will.

THE FOLLOWING DOCUMENT IS YOUR PERSONAL COPY AND DOES NOT NEED TO BE SUBMITTED WITH YOUR PERSONAL HISTORY STATEMENT

- A SUMMARY OF YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THE FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT

A SUMMARY OF YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THE FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT

The Federal Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) is designed to promote accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of every "Consumer Reporting Agency" (CRA). Most CRAs are credit bureaus that gather and sell information about you, such as if you pay your bills on time or have filed bankruptcy, to creditors, employers, landlords, and other businesses. You can find the complete text of the FCRA, 15 U.S.C. 1681-1681U, at the Federal Trade Commission's Web Site (<http://www.ftc.gov>). The FCRA gives you specific rights, as outlined below. You may have additional rights under State Law. You may contact a state or local consumer protection agency or a State Attorney General to learn those rights. You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses information from a CRA to take action against you, such as denying an application for credit, insurance, or employment, must tell you, and give you the name, address, and phone number of the CRA that provided the consumer report.

You can find out what is in your file. At your request, a CRA must give you the information in your file, and a list of everyone who has requested it recently. There is no charge for the report if a person has taken action against you because of information supplied by the CRA. If you request the report within 60 days of receiving notice of the action, you are entitled to one free report every twelve months upon request if you certify that (1) you are unemployed and plan to seek employment within 60 days, (2) you are on welfare, or (3) your report is inaccurate due to fraud. Otherwise, a CRA may charge you up to eight dollars.

You can dispute inaccurate information with the CRA. If you tell a CRA that your file contains inaccurate information, the CRA must investigate the items, usually within 30 days, by presenting to its information source all relevant evidence you submit, unless your dispute is frivolous. The source must review your evidence and report its findings to the CRA. The source also must advise national CRA's, to which it has provided the data, of any error. The CRA must give you a written report of the investigation, and a copy of your report if the investigation results in any change. If the CRA's investigation does not resolve the dispute, you may add a brief statement in future reports. If an item is deleted or a dispute statement is filed, you may ask that anyone who has recently received your report be notified of the change.

Inaccurate information must be corrected or deleted. A CRA must remove or correct inaccurate or unverified information from its files, usually within 30 days after you dispute it. However, the CRA is not required to remove accurate data from your file unless it is outdated, as described below, or cannot be verified. If you dispute results in any change to your report, the CRA cannot reinsert into your file a disputed item unless the information source verifies its accuracy and completeness. In addition, the CRA must give you a written notice telling you it has reinserted the item. The notice must include the name, address and phone number of the information source.

You can dispute inaccurate items with the source of the information. If you tell anyone, such as a creditor who reports to a CRA, that you dispute an item, they may not then report the information to a CRA without including a notice of your dispute. In addition, once you've notified the source of the error in writing, it may not continue to report the information if it is, in fact, an error.

Outdated information may not be reported. In most cases, a CRA may not report negative information that is more than seven years old; ten years for bankruptcies.

Access to your file is limited. A CRA may provide information about you only to people with a need recognized by the FCRA, usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business.

Your consent is required for reports that are provided to employers, or reports that contain medical information. A CRA may not give out information about you to your employer, or prospective employer, without your written consent. A CRA may not report medical information about you to creditors, insurers, or employers without your permission.

You may choose to exclude your name from CRA lists for unsolicited credit and insurance offers. Creditors and insurers may use file information as the basis for sending you unsolicited offers of credit or insurance. Such offers must include a toll-free phone number for you to call if you want your name and address removed from future lists. If you call, you must be kept off the lists for two years. If you request, complete, and return the CRA form provided for this purpose, you must be taken off the lists indefinitely.

You may seek damages from violators. If a CRA, a user, or, in some cases, a provider of CRA data, violates the FCRA, you may sue them in State or Federal Court. The FCRA give several different federal agencies authority to enforce the FCRA.
