City of Bedford Appoints Brian Bosshardt as New City Manager

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Bedford, Texas - (February 2, 2017) – On January 31, 2017, the Bedford City Council voted unanimously to make Brian Bosshardt the new City Manager for Bedford. No specific start date has been confirmed, but it is expected that he will begin on or before April 15.

Bosshardt will replace Roger Gibson, who has served as City Manager for almost two years. Gibson announced his retirement late last year.

Bosshardt received his Master's Degree in Public Administration from Arizona State University and began his public career with the City of Scottsdale, AZ. Currently, Bosshardt is the Deputy County Manager of Incorporated City & County of Los Alamos, NM where he has served for almost five years. Prior to his appointment as Deputy County Manager, he served as Assistant to the County Administrator in Los Alamos County.

Bosshardt has 19 years of local government experience, is an accredited ICMA, International City Management Association, Instructor and has been facilitating the coordination of Los Alamos' management action plans.

Effective at 5:00p.m. on Friday, February 3, 2017, Assistant City Manager, Kelli Agan, will begin serving as Interim City Manager and she has the full support of the Mayor and City Council.

"Not only has Kelli done a fantastic job as Assistant City Manager, but her willingness to step in as Interim City Manager makes her such a valuable member of the Bedford Team," said Mayor Griffin. "We value and appreciate the dedication that she will bring to her time as Interim City Manager."
